Income Tax

Please note no tax is deducted from your pay as there is no requirement to do so in the BVI. However, you might be taxable in your home country and you should seek professional advice. South African residents should note section 10(1)(o) of the Act which exempts "any person in respect of services rendered outside the Republic for or on behalf of any employer if such person was outside the Republic for periods exceeding 183 full days (in aggregate) during any 12 month period commencing or ending during the year of assessment and for a continuous period exceeding 60 full days during that 12 month period." If you are placing reliance on this exemption it is your responsibility to ensure that you meet the requirements.
